HOW TO CONDUCT BANKING ACTIVITIES DURING THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC

Visit bank branches only if your banking needs cannot be fulfilled by digital platforms

IF YOU ARE VISITING A BANK BRANCH, MAKE SURE TO:

Comply and support the safety regulations practiced in the bank premises

Ensure only the essential person/s visit the bank and take all possible measures to ensure high risk individuals (e.g., senior citizens, children, expectant mothers) refrain from visiting banks. Do not visit bank branches if:

- you have symptoms such as cold, cough and fever; and/or
- there is any possibility that you have associated with a COVID-19 infected person.

BEWARE OF SCAMS

Be vigilant if you receive calls, emails, or other communications requesting details of your bank accounts, personal identification details, etc., and do not give your information to unknown third parties. Contact your bank and verify the authenticity of such requests.

Contact your respective banks for further details/ instructions and assistance
